NEW DELHI

Karuna Gopal Vartakav, BJP Leader, President Foundation for Futuristic Cities and Independent Director, Engineers India Ltd has been conferred the prestigious "Pt Deendayal Upadhyaya Recognition 2023" for re-engineering G20 by ReTHINK INDIA, New Delhi. Karuna is also a regular contributor at The Daily Guardian. ReTHINK INDIA is promoted by alumni of IIT and AIIMS, catalysing all-round National Excellence in the ambit of Civilisational Consciousness of Sanatan Bharat.

The award will be conferred on 11 February 2023, commemorating the 56th Punyatithi of Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya, the proponent of the Indic Ideology of Integral Humanism.

The letter said, "This award is conferred on Karuna Gopal Vartakavi for her sustained enunciation and elaboration of Futuristic Vision of New India anchored in her two decades of work underscoring Civilisational Values. Ms Gopal's spirit and commitment is seen from her quote at the World Government Summit. 'What the World needs now is not just collaboration but Extreme Collaboration - where countries sense the 'unsaid' needs of their partners and reach out to help - Going beyond MOUs. We believe this sentiment defines and determines the quintessence of Vasudhaiv Kutumbakam'."

In the last edition, those who received this recognition include Shamika Ravi, Member, PM Economic Advisory Council and Amitabh Kant, Sherpa for G20 India Presidency and Former NITI Aayog CEO.

This year the recipients, in addition to Karuna Gopal, are Rajiv Malhotra, Founder, Infinity Foundation (internationally recognised for his contribution through unique findings in Research and Education), Tejaswini Ananth Kumar, Scientist who worked on the LCA - Tejas project (Headed by Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam), Ashwin Sanghi, Author, Bharat Series (Author and Writer of India's several bestsellers).
